

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 1914

The sinking of the Good Hope and Monmouth with all hands has brought mourning to many a Devonshire home. This town, we regret to say is affected by the disaster. On the Good Hope was a Dawlishian, Mr Arthur Henry Bearne, 1st Class Steward. Deceased, who is aged 33 years, was married to a daughter of Mr and Mrs Morey, of 1 Portland Terrace, who is left with a young child, a boy. On the Monmouth was Sergt, F. Davis, R.M.L.I., a native of this town, who has lately resided at Plymouth and leaves a widow and two children. He was a smart young non-commissioned officer. There was also on her a Dawlish Coastguard, named Richards, who was also married. The deepest sympathy is felt with those bereaved.

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 1914

Mrs. A H Bearne thanks all kind friends for the sympathy shown to her in her sad bereavement.

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 1914

Deaths.

Davis. – Nov. 1st, on active service, Frederick Albert Davis, Sergeant, R.M.L.I., H.M.S. Monmouth, son of the late John and Mary Davis, aged 31 years.

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 1914

LOSSES ON H.M.S. GOOD HOPE

The Admiralty announces casualties among petty officers, non-coms and men of his Majesty's ship Good Hope, presumed to have lost their lives: 888
