

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, DEC. 19, 1914

---

Mr J. F. King, head master of the Dawlish Boys' Council School, has prepared and hung in the lobby of the school a Roll of Honour, containing the names of Old Boys of the school who have either given their lives for their country or been wounded in battle. At present the number is eleven, five killed and six wounded.

Their names are as follows:- Killed in action – W. J. Criddle, Samuel Pillar, Fredk. A. Davis, John F. Wills, and Arthur Bearne. Wounded - W. Melhuish, Sidney C. Bowden, Sidney Quanbtick, Gilbert Pudner, James L. Wills and A. Rich.

---