

Thomas Frederick Jarman - 22nd June 1915

The Dawlish Gazette
SATURDAY, July 3, 1915

ORBITUARY.

The funeral took place at Dawlish on the 24th June of Mr Thomas Frederick Jarman, a member of an old Holcombe family, who died from cancer at the age of 47, after a painful illness. Deceased had lately resided at 6 Queen Street with his wife and family. The interment took place at the Cemetery, the officiating clergymen being Revs. A. Gill and W H C Lane. The mourners were Mrs Jarman (widow) Misses Agnes, Gladys and Ethel Jarman (daughters), Mr Jarman (father), Mrs Marlow (sister), Messrs. C, J, A and H Jarman (brothers), Mrs Honour (aunt), Miss Jarman (aunt), Mr and Mrs Honour (Uncle and Aunt). Deceased only son Corpl. W Jarman, of the 4th Buffs is in India.

The large number of wreaths, etc., were from the following:— Wife and family, His son Willie, Mr and Mrs Head (son-in-law and daughter); father and Mary, Sarah Ann, Lottie, Agnes and Arthur, (sisters and brother); Mr and Mrs Gyde, Aunt Jane, Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Bob, Uncle Jim and Aunt Caroline, Albert and Jessie Jarman, Mr and Mrs Marlow, Mr and Mrs H Jarman, and family, Mr and Mrs J Jarman and Mr and Mrs C Jarman, Vera Jarman, Nurse Venton, Charlie Kerswell, Mr and Mrs H Saunders, Miss Shapter, Mrs Biddlestone and daughters, Mrs Small, Mr and Mrs Elliot, Mr and Mrs Pascoe.