Bethencourt is a village and commune in the Department of the Nord, a little north to Le Cateau.
The Commonwealth Graves are in the north-east of the Communal Cemetery off the road from Caudry to Solesmes.
It lies to the north of the D643 Cambrai to Le Cateau road.
It holds the graves of 21 men of the Devonshire Regiment killed on Sunday 20 October, 1918.