

Petty Officer Charles Lake

Dawlish Gazette – 2nd September 1916

We deeply regret to have to announce the death of Petty Officer Charles Lake, R.N., of 8 King Street, Dawlish, who lost his life whilst on duty in one of H.M.'s ships on war service. His wife received the sad intelligence from the Admiralty on Tuesday morning last. The keenest sympathy is felt with her and her two children, a boy and a girl. Deceased was aged 34. He had been on special and dangerous work throughout the war and had been concerned in some exciting and successful enterprises. He served his King and country faithfully and well, and deserves a high place in the list of those numberless heroes who have made the supreme sacrifice for the rightful cause in this war.

Dawlish Gazette – 9th September 1916

MR. LAKE wishes to return thanks to the many friends who have sent letters or otherwise extended their sympathy with herself and family in their bereavement.
8 King Street, Dawlish.
