

Private James Henry Hill

4th April 1917

Dawlish Gazette – 14th April 1917

Heartfelt sympathy goes out to another respected Dawlish family, who received distressing news on Thursday evening, in an official communication stating that Pte James Hill, R.A.M.C., was missing, believed drowned. Pte Hill is a native of this town, and the eldest son of Mr and Mrs Harry Hill, of Stuart House, The Strand. He was married not long since, his wife having been living with his parents whilst he was on service. A hairdresser by trade, he joined the regular R.A.M.C. early in the war, being a qualified member of the St. John Ambulance Association. For many months he had been engaged as an orderly on a hospital ship. Mr and Mrs Hill's two other sons are in the Forces, Frank being in the Grand Fleet, and Russell was recently home from the front on sick leave.

Dawlish Gazette – 28th April 1917

MRS. JAMES HILL & MR. & MRS. H. HILL desire to return thanks for the many exceedingly kind expressions of sympathy with them in their bereavement.
Stuart House, Strand, Dawlish.
