

Lance Corporal Francis George Larcombe

March 30th 1917

Dawlish Gazette – April 14th 1917

FOR KING AND COUNTRY.

We deeply regret to know that official notification has been received of Lance-Corporal Larcombe, of the Devon Regt. Deceased was head gamekeeper on the Luscombe estate before joining the Army. He had been on active service just over three months. The sympathies of all go out to the widow and two young children in their sad bereavement.

Dawlish Gazette – April 28th 1917

LARCOMBE.—Mrs. Larcombe has received the official announcement that her husband, Corpl. F. G. Larcombe, fell in action March 30th, 1917.

The blow was great, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

MRS. LARCOMBE begs to thank her many friends for the kind sympathy shown to her in her sorrow.
Beech Grove Lodge, Luscombe.
