

Private Albert Mayne

9th August 1917

Dawlish Gazette – 4th August 1917

The end of last week a Holcombe soldier, Pte Reginald Honour, of the Coldstream Guards, wrote home stating that a comrade of his, Pte Bert Mayne, of Dawlish, had been very seriously wounded in the legs and stomach. Since then official news has been received confirming this statement. Pte Mayne is married and has one child.
