

Lieutenant Philip Gladstone Pope

16th October 1916

Dawlish Gazette – 27th October 1917

“PRO PATRIA.”

Lieut. Philip Gladstone Pope, R.F.A., of 5 Oak Park Villas, Dawlish, only son of Mr Sydney Philip Pope, solicitor, of Exeter, was killed in action on the 16th inst. The deceased, who was aged 30, had been serving from the beginning of the war. He leaves a widow and two children.

Death.

POPE.—On the 16th inst., killed in action, Philip Gladstone Pope, of Oak Park, Dawlish, Lieutenant, R.F.A., only son of Sydney P. Pope, of Howden, Tiverton.