

Rifleman Archibald Frederick Davies

2nd December 1917

Dawlish Gazette – 22nd December 1917

ROLL OF HONOUR.

We deeply regret to have to record the deaths of two more Dawlish soldiers, both natives of the town.

The first, Pte Archibald, Fredk. Davies, of a Trench Mortar Battery, attached Queen's Westminsters, is the eldest son of Mr and Mrs F A Davies, of 3 Marine Parade, and grandson of the late Mr F P Davies. He was married, aged 37, and has a son aged 4 years. A letter from an officer of his Battery states that he was killed instantaneously on the 3rd inst. Deceased was confidential clerk to a well-known firm of London solicitors, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. He was home on leave only a month ago.

DAVIES.— Killed in action, Dec. 3rd. Archibald Frederick Davies, London Regt., eldest loved son of Mr and Mrs Davies, 3 Marine Parade, Dawlish, and beloved husband of Lilian Davies, 54, The Crescent, Wimbledon Park, S.W., aged 36 years.

Dawlish Gazette – 29th December 1917

MR. & MRS. F. A. DAVIES & FAMILY wish to thank many friends for their kind enquiries and sympathy in their recent bereavement
3 Marine Parade,
Dawlish.
