

Private Walter Lennox Andrews

23rd March 1918

Dawlish Gazette – 20th April 1918

Mrs Cornelius and Miss Andrews, of Barton Garden, Dawlish, have received the sad news of the death in action on the 23rd March of their brother, Pte Walter Andrews, of the — Hussars. The deceased was a regular soldier, one of the old brigade who helped to stem the tide in the early days of the war. He took part in the first battle of Ypres. He was aged 28.
