

2nd Lieutenant Kenneth Reginald Flint Kemp
18th October 1918

Dawlish Gazette – 26th October 1918

We announce the death in this issue of Second-Lieut. Ken Kemp (Croix de Guerre), a capable officer and a talented young gentleman, who died in the service of his country. The family formerly resided in Dawlish, and the funeral took place here last Wednesday, the interment being at the cemetery.