

Frederick Alfred Davis – 1st November 1914

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 1914

---

The sinking of the Good Hope and Monmouth with all hands has brought mourning to many a Devonshire home. This town, we regret to say is affected by the disaster. On the Good Hope was a Dawlishian, Mr Arthur Henry Bearne, 1st Class Steward. Deceased, who is aged 33 years, was married to a daughter of Mr and Mrs Morey, of 1 Portland Terrace, who is left with a young child, a boy. On the Monmouth was Sergt, F. Davis, R.M.L.I., a native of this town, who has lately resided at Plymouth and leaves a widow and two children. He was a smart young non-commissioned officer. There was also on her a Dawlish Coastguard, named Richards, who was also married. The deepest sympathy is felt with those bereaved.

---

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 1914

---

Deaths.

Davis. – Nov. 1st, on active service, Frederick Albert Davis, Sergeant, R.M.L.I., H.M.S. Monmouth, son of the late John and Mary Davis, aged 31 years.

---

The Dawlish Gazette

SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 1914

---

LOSSES ON H.M.S. GOOD HOPE

The Admiralty announces casualties among petty officers, non-coms and men of his Majesty's ship Good Hope, presumed to have lost their lives: 888

---