

Samuel Pillar - 8th November

The Dawlish Gazette,
SATURDAY, November 28, 1914

---

Another Dawlishian, Pte. S Pillar, of the Coldstream Guards, has given his life for his country whilst fighting in France. His widowed mother, who lives in Old Town Street, received the sad news on Wednesday. Pte pillar had been in the Army about three years. The greatest sympathy is felt with the mother and his brothers and sisters.
